A long way back from home...
And we'll hold ourselves to everything we've said...
And it's so hard... to keep ourselves.
From falling apart. I'm falling apart.

And it's not worth the worry...
(I've got a bad feeling, and you've got to remember)
But if it makes you believe in me...

Oh... it doesn't get easier from here...
And I'm not getting any better...
And expectations, only lead to problems...

And I've been waiting...
So open up your arms...
I never thought we'd make it through this...
Believe... believe...

And it's not worth the worry...
(I've got a bad feeling, and you've got to remember)
But if it makes you believe in me...

Than maybe it was worth the wait.
