So many men have held her hand
Only one held her attention
He put her pride on a downhill slide
Faster than she cares to mention

Her feelings are all out of focus
Nothing is clear anymore
Her heart's playing hocus-pocus
Trying to even the score

So think what you want, do what you may
You're just a game that she's got to play
Like a fast movin' train or a slow settin' sun
She's a love on the loose, with a heart on the run
Love on the loose, with a heart on the run

There's a pain in her heart where the love used to be
He cut her loose, now she's fancy free
She makes the rules now, when she plays the game
She thinks it's better that way

Now when you see her, she lights up the night
With neon eyes, sparkling bright
Her heart is something that you'll never win
That don't mean you can't try

So think what you want, do what you may
You're just a game that she's got to play
Like a fast movin' train or a slow settin' sun
She's a love on the loose, with a heart on the run
Love on the loose, with a heart on the run

Her feelings are all out of focus
Nothing is clear anymore
Her heart's playing hocus-pocus
Trying to even the score

So think what you want, do what you may
You're just a game that she's got to play
Like a fast movin' train or a slow settin' sun
She's a love on the loose, with a heart on the run
Like a fast movin' train or a slow settin' sun

She's a love on the loose, with a heart on the run
