"Dressed To Kill"

Monday, Friday working 9 to 5
He's been working so hard
Says goodbye to his loving wife
The house he works to afford
Moonlight flashing on the kitchen knife
To wander, God only knows
You know he always keeps it outta sight
In his second hand clothes
Dressed to kill
He's dressed to kill
Dressed to kill
You know that he will
A lonely street by a lonely park
A lady dressed to thrill
See the man in a family car
You know he's dressed to kill
