Yeah, once again
This is not only a story
It's the reality of life
Look into the sky...
Stars in heaven are flying so high
When you get around everything will be
Everything will be alright
If you're rolling, strolling, holding and knowing
You hear my words cause they ain't no lies
And everything is going
It's jealousy, no history
Unintentionally, brutality
Now you came to see - to see the mystery
And check the game it used to be 16 years young little teenagers
Making little babies whit the virus - at their ages

Chorus:

It's a shame to play this game
Look into reality
It's a shame can't you feel the pain
It's a shame to play this game
Got to face reality
It's a shame you still feel the same
Live your life in dignity

Can you stand the rain
This hopeless world is driving me insane
My brain - I can't maintain
All this people in this game
Just words to all
Who still don't care a little bit
Just one thing to tell you ain't shit!
Open your eyes and let me bring it to your soul
Keep the faith inside your heart
'Cause life must go on
Steps into your brain like a knife
And you're afraid
Belive in god and youwill find your way

Chorus

Sometimes I feel the pain inside of me
Every night and day
It seems the pain that I have
That I hate is all
That I've gained in this game
And I wish the rain
Would delete this flame - ohh, it's a shame!
It's a shame to play this game
Look into reality
It's a shame can't you feel the pain, ohh...
It's a shame to play this game
Look into reality
It's a shame can't you feel the pain, ohh...
It sticks into your brain...
It's the reality of life!
