She said it was just for a day
But now I know she's gone to stay
She's gone and found another man
What can I do, I feel so down
She went and left without a sign
My friends say "come on, you'll feel fine"
But I know better 'cause it's true
She's gone to make a life with you
You're the other man
You used to be my friend
You're the other man
You're the other man
You're the other man
You brought my life to an end
So you're the other man
I often wondered who it could be
You've gone and torn apart my life
Taken the girl who belonged to me
Now I don't ever want to see you again
You're just a bum, you're not my friend
You made my girl lie to me
And I was a fool, I'd believe her
