Well, Iâ€™m makinâ€™ my contribution
Thatâ€™s no lie, thatâ€™s my solution
To savinâ€™ this world from self-destruction
I keep on makinâ€™ my contribution

I donâ€™t work in a factory
In a corporate office you wonâ€™t find me
I donâ€™t have to be up a dawn
I donâ€™t have to put a suit and tie on
But I have sweat as much as any man
In any job across this land
Iâ€™ve paid my dues to do what I do
And I donâ€™t care how it looks to you

Thereâ€™s a world out there that walks the line
Between devastation and peaceful times
There are people right here who canâ€™t find a way
To deal with the pain of livinâ€™ each day
A song to sing and a reason to smile
A little distraction from this world a while
Are what I have to give, if you canâ€™t see
Iâ€™ll guess Iâ€™ll leave you to your misery

Now, I donâ€™t claim to know the meaning of life
How to feed the world or set things right
I donâ€™t think that I can right the wrongs
Do away with injustice by singing my song
I do my job as well as I can do
And hope that I help to get someone through
And maybe bring a little happiness
To this old world, well I do my best

Well, Iâ€™m makinâ€™ my contribution
Thatâ€™s no lie, thatâ€™s my solution
To savinâ€™ this world from self-destruction
I keep on makinâ€™ my contribution
