Got the blues in the mornin'
Got the blues everyday
Had the blues this mornin'
Had the blues all this long day
You're gonna have them blues too
If you don't get out my way

I'm a man on a mission
Got to bring my woman back home
I'm a man on a mission
Got to bring my woman back home
When I find the man that stole her
Lord, I'll break every bone

Now I got to spend my lifetime
Pacin' 'cross this prison cell
I got to spend my lifetime
Pacin' 'cross this prison cell
'Cause I found the man who stole my woman
Lord, I sent him straight to hell

Well Tin cup, jail bars
Lord, I'm makin' some noise
Tin cup, jail bars
Lord, I'm makin' some noise
I heard my woman's with another man
You better let me out of here, boys
