I'm so sorry, for that I said
I took the breath inside left it all for dead
Destroyed the trust that we once had
Scared you more than I ever wanted
Across an ocean a million miles away
Maybe I'll see you again someday
Across an ocean, a million miles away
I hope you find happiness,
I hope you'll be ok

Luck is no lady; the girl is no good

Bring it back, the past seems bitter
The enduring of a long cold winter
I hope you find that peace within
I'm so sorry for all that I did
