"Jack-O-Lantern Man"

Oh jack-o-lantern man
We will see who's laughing then
Someday when push comes to shove
We will see who's laughing then
Oh jack-o-lantern man
If you could see the rage inside of me
I could cut my veins and drown you in the flames and I'd know, I'd know
I would know ecstasy

And I was only seventeen
Stir the blood spill the seed
Psilocybin all the time
Dirty water spill the wine
The birds outside, they never stop
Shut the window call the cops

Oh jack-o-lantern man
I wanna see that smile turn cold surprise
We will see who's laughing then
When I piss in your hollow eyes
I wanna drown you like a kitten in the sink
I wanna see you bleed amethyst
Oh jack-o-lantern man
We will see who's laughing then with a skull full of piss

And I was only seventeen
Stir the blood spill the seed
Psilocybin all the time
Dirty water spill the wine
Kenneth Anger colored dreams
Underwater hide the screams
The birds outside, they never stop
Shut the window call the cops
