Shine a light through what's inside you
Don't let it slip away
This painted canvas, hides the purpose
In the forest and the trees
Just walk away from everything you are
Let it go
The devils left you blind, to what's between the lines
And what you wanted
What are tears but, blood from the eyes
When they're penetrated
By the face of a man who's dreams cracked and faded
Just walk away from everything you are
Let it go
The devils left you blind, to what's between the lines
And what you wanted
Same old story
You won't let go, you won't let GO!
Cut the chord, turn out the lights
Never look back
Never look back
Never look back
Never look back
This gags been tied around your mouth
Your words the blade, so talk it out
Before the lights all burn out
This gags been tied around your mouth
Your words the blade, so talk it out
Before the lights all burn out
Just walk away from everything you are
Let it go
The devils left you blind, to what's between the lines
And what you wanted
