We've been bought, we've been sold
In this town of lost control
You leave it out, it gets cold
Another thing you think you know
I can't keep up with your prolific ways
Leave your things at home cause no one stays
We show then we fold
We rock than we roll
This cover up, is so thin
Close your eyes now let's being
Spin around, and round again
Falling down never hurt so good
Now turn me over
Now turn me over
Cause I will never
Say a word
The gamble begins
But the house always wins
Look at your life (cause something isn't right)
Rip out your insides (what do you see)
Just empty spaces
That make you feel full
So many places
You don't control
Cause I know you have everything I don't
But I know I have everything you won't
So here's your perfect castle made of sand
How long till the tide will come in
'the walls have been breached
The wardens behind bars
The prisoners have taken over
The prisoners have taken over'
We've been bought, you've been sold
In this town of lost control
You left it out, it got cold
Too many things you thought you knew
You've lost touch with your prolific ways
Keep your things at home cause no one stays
If you hit the ground
Would you make a sound
Look at your life (cause something isn't right)
Rip out your insides (what do you see)

Just empty spaces
That make you feel full
So many places
You don't control
I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know what's inside you
Look at your life (cause something isn't right)
Rip out your insides (what do you see)
Just empty spaces
That make you feel full
So many places
You don't control
