Take it back if you really didn't mean it
Anymore I don't know if I believe it
I'm done hearing all of your excuses
Why take a good heart and make it feel useless
Make me feel so
Mad I can't stop laughing
So sad I can't stop crying
The raindrops won't stop falling
Even though the sky is blue
The one thing I can stop is loving you
Take it back, I didn't really need it
True love should never leave you bleeding
Broken down lies are not worth saying
Who would've thought the games you were playing
Would make me feel so
Mad I can't stop laughing
So sad I can't stop crying
The raindrops won't stop falling
Even though the sky is blue
The one thing I can stop is loving you
Take the sands of time when you were mine
We will never go back there
All the lonely nights and petty lies
You promised you'd be here
But you never were
Cause you chose her
And I'm so
Mad I can't stop laughing
So sad I can't stop crying
The raindrops won't stop falling
Even though the sky is blue
The one thing I can stop is loving you
Oh the one thing I can stop is loving you
Take it back if you really didn't mean it
Take it back if you really didn't mean it
Take it back if you really didn't mean it
