Any day now
I will hear you say
Goodbye my love
You'll be on your way
In the wild, beautiful bird
You will have flown, yeah
Any day now, I'll be all alone
(and you won't be around)
Any day now
When your restless eyes
Meet someone new
Too my sad surprise
And the blue shadows will fall
All over town, yeah
Any day now
You won't be around
(and love will let me down)
I shouldn't want to keep

If you don't want to stay
Until you're gone forever
I'll be holding out
For dear life, holding out
Holding you this way
(and begging you to stay)
Any day now
When the clock strikes go
You'll go away
Then my tears will fall
And the blue shadows will fall
All over town, yeah
Any day now
You won't be around
(and love will let me down)
