When the morning sunrise
Becomes a magic show
Before your very eyes
And all the sounds of life
Begin to harmonize

You hear a song of hope
Surround your senses
And feel the promise of
A brand new kind of world

Lose your defenses
Unlock your mind
Unwind and follow me
Come let me help you see
How to find the way
To leave yesterday behind

We should be together
When we're this close
We're bound to work it out somehow
We found a dream to share
Don't lose it now

Just let my song of love
Surround your senses
And feel the promise of
A brand new kind of world

Lose your defenses
Unlock your mind
You know I love you
Come let me show you
How to find the way
To leave yesterday behind

Lose your defenses
Unlock your mind
You know I love you
Come let me show you
How to find the way
To leave yesterday behind

Just find the way
Yesterday behind
