They say we're too young to ever know a love
But you're everything that I've been dreaming of
And I know you'll stay and I know you'll love me

They say before long you'll walk right out my door
But I know their wrong; you're mine forevermore
And I know you'll stay and I know you'll love me

When something's right you can feel it in your heart
Our love is right, and I know we'll never part

Many years will come and many years will go
And will show them all just how our love did grow
And I know you'll stay and I know you'll love me

When something's right you can feel it in your heart
Our love is right, and I know we'll never part

Many years will come and many years will go
And will show them all just how our love did grow
And I know you'll stay and I know you'll love me

Oh, yes I know you'll stay and I know you'll love me
