The sky ship has made it's last stop
Boarded up in slow motion

Enjoying every last moment
To the instant
Time is limitless
And soon I fall

Back through the chair
Through the earth
Into space
Into a molecule
Into the end
Upon forever

Experience is all I want
So I pack up my bags
And file out
At some space possible

I'm convinced this is real
I regret to bid farewell
To these last moments
Of imperfect perfection

Enjoying every last moment

The sky ship has made it's last stop
