Would you hate me if I don't believe you
It's hard to love you from the signs I get from you
Could you trust me if I said that I love you

Is there anybody
I can see around you
Taking me for granted
For all the things that I do

If we go
To a place we know
I can show
How good life could go
If you take it
Just leave all you know

If I could say I believe in fate I would
I had a dream that in my heart there was a flood
I woke up and my sheets all tangled up

Is there anybody
I can see around you
Taking me for granted
For all the things that I do

If we go
To a place we know
I can show
How good life could go
If you take it
Just leave all you know

[Instrumental]

If we go
To a place we know
I can show
How good life could go
If we go
To a place we know
I can show

How good life could go
If you take it
Just leave all you know
