"Call Me Home"

Sometimes I feel like Karna
Has got over my skin
I put on my armour
Guarding me from outside in, but

At night I am woken by
Images of the flood oh oh
I'm living on the border
I'm living in the mud

You say there is no order
You say there is no cause
You say there is no reason to find
Happiness at all

Call me home
Is anybody out there at
Haul me home
Is anybody out there at all

Have we forgot our brothers
Have we forgot our kin
Have we forgot who loves us dearly
Have we forgot who'll sink or swim and

I went down to the water
Where my conscience flows oh oh
She told me to say Karna
We are and aren't alone
