randdad sitting by the fire, reminiscing of the times when he was a boy
In the good old days, he keeps on saying but everything I heard before Times were when, times were when, times that won't be back again
Times were when

Times were when boys look like poor boys and their daddy says, "Active like youth should"
He doesn't understand our generation and in it he can see no good
back again
Times were when

But when I get to his age, I will talk of all the good times
I had today
Times were when he was a young man and he thought and did the same things I do today
back again
Times were when

back again
Times were when
