You can tell your local honky-tonk and every guy in town
Tell the bartender to set 'em up, free drinks all around
Pump the jukebox full of quarters, let that music roar
And watch the boys just standin' there starin' at the door

CHORUS:

'Cause it ain't a party 'til the girls arrive
When that perfume hits the air, the dance floor comes alive.
Let's get it started, make it last all night
Boys, don't you know it ain't a party 'til the girls arrive.

So, hang out with your buddies, play a thousand games of pool
Pretend you're havin' lots of fun, but who're you tryin' to fool?
You're waitin' for the moment the girls start walkin' in
We'll get there when we're ready, then the good times will begin

CHORUS X 2

Yeah, boys don't you know it ain't a party 'til the girls arrive.....
