You say that you don't love me, well, that's no mystery.
I can feel it in your kisses and the way you look at me.
You say that lately you've been thinkin' that it's time for you to go,
Tell me something I don't know.

'Cause I can't figure out why it all fell apart,
And I don't have a clue just how I lost your heart
So make me understand why I still need you so,
And tell me something I don't know.

You say that you've found someone that makes you feel alive
And she made you a promise to love you for all times.
Well, boy, I found the shoe box I read the letters that she wrote
So, tell me something I don't know.

'Cause I can't figure out why it all fell apart
And I don't have a clue just how I lost your heart
So make me understand why I still need you so
And tell me something I don't know.

I don't know what it's like to lie alone at night and toss and turn
When it comes to pain, it's plain to see I've got a lot to learn.
So make me understand why I still need you so,
And tell me how to let you go,
And tell me something I don't know,
And tell me something I don't know.
