Saturday september nine
All systems are in line
Traveling near the speed of light
We're living among stars
How I wish you could see me here

Thirteenth of september now
Communications down
Trying not to be concerned
I carry out my tasks
Time begins to blur

I awake I'm all alone
My navigation gone
A field of unfamiliar stars
Drifting farther and farther away

Don't know the date
Don't know the time
The lab rats are insane
And I fear that I'll be next
How long it won't be long
Drifting farther and farther away
How I wish you could see me here

Thirteenth of september now
Communications down
Trying not to be concerned
I carry out my tasks
Time begins to blur

I awake I'm all alone
My navigation gone
A field of unfamiliar stars
Drifting farther and farther away

Don't know the date
Don't know the time
The lab rats are insane
And I fear that I'll be next
How long it won't be long
Drifting farther and farther away
