Standing alone waiting for him,
In the rain I'm coming in,
That is when we meet

You are not an ordinary person,
Like nothing I've ever seen
In the rain, in my jacket, in the dark when we meet.

You say goodbye as I'm going in,
Here comes a car you're getting in,
But all you see is me

I'm not an ordinary person,
Like nothing you've ever seen.
In the rain, in my jacket, in the dark when we meet.

Make it hard to ask
My feelings are not glass
You cannot break them apart
When it's real from the start.

Oh...

I'm not an ordinary person,
Like nothing you've ever seen,
In the rain, in my jacket, in the dark when we meet.

I'm not an ordinary person,
Like nothing you've ever seen.
In the rain, in my jacket, in the dark when we meet.

Make it hard to ask
Make it hard to ask
