We're together again
After so long
The beating of the heart beats for one song arms around each other hold me close tonight and I feel the way I used to you make it alright

One night alone in this world when there's you and I Let the feeling surround you Don't let me pass you by holding on, holding on, holding on for the first time And when you go away you never say goodbye

You never told me if these feelings ever go away
I never seemed to care about them before anyway
You never say
I never know
No, never

Was it something I said All I wanted was to be your only friend
listen to your heartbeat
Never meant to make you cry
Sit down beside me And listen
listen to your heart beat

oh oh oh oh oh oh (listen to your heart beat woah)

You never told me if these feelings ever go away
I never seemed to care about them before anyway
You never say
I never know
No, never
