The photograph, the afternoon the telephone, the plane too soon
I couldn't speak, I couldn't breathe
Not again

The only time, I have with you is in the car, on the avenue
But all these things, like all my dreams slip away

On my own again (ooh-oh)
On my own again (ooh-oh)
All alone again

(I need to be)
On my own again (ooh-oh)
(I wanna be)
On my own again (ooh-oh)
(Come on and be)
All alone again

Calling, calling, calling everyday saying things that no one else could say Don't forget me if I fall away
