Way back when the church was young
In the day of Pentecost
There were a few good men
Who ride the land
Preachin' Jesus to the lost
They came from different places
From different walks of life
They didn't have no demonination
They just called themselves the 'Body of Christ'

There's a lot of good people who love the Lord
Even in the world today
They want to bring the oneness in
But somehow we've lost our way
We need to reach out to our brothers
And take our Bibles off the shelf
And put our differences aside
And stop fighting amongst ourselves

We're still sittin' around here
Fussin' with each other
While the lost and dyin' world
Is going to hell
Just put your hand in my hand
We've been fighting long enough
And let's get down to God's business
The business of love

Some like their music quiet
Some like their music loud
Some people sit and listen
Some people dance around
Just look up at the rainbow
That God put in the sky
He uses all of the colors
To make the light of His love shine

We're still sittin' around here
Fussin' with each other
While the lost and dyin' world
Is going to hell

Just put your hand in my hand
We've been fighting long enough
And let's get down to God's business
The business of love

Put your hand in my hand
We've been fighting long enough
And let's get down to God's business
The business of love
