"Soldier's Lament"

Some are born through sorrow,
Some are born through pain,
Some are born
..through laughter and joy
We were born to live again,
And we will live again.
A lonely soul by the river
The Celtic moon his only friend,
The journey's end
..but not far away,
The journey begins again,
And we will begin again.
Life be like
the joy and sorrow
Peace enjoyment, love and sorrow.
One fond kiss and then we sever,
One farewell,
alas forever.
My only love,
Nay,
forever,
goodbye.
