It could have been something
Something into nothing
That's just the way it goes
And everybody knows

Starting flying this way
Arrows through a heart shape
That's just the way it goes

And everybody knows
And everybody knows
That's just the way it goes

Driving down the highway
Living on a heart ache
That's just the way it goes
And everybody knows

Dreaming of your best thoughts
Dying for the small talk
That's just the way it goes

And everybody knows
And everybody knows
That's just the way it goes

First time, just a quick run through
Next time, when you're gonna get to
Slow down, do ya hurry up
And move on to another round

Next time, better than the first time
Last time, better than the next time
Sunsets, fade to black

And you know
That's just the way it goes
That's just the way it goes
That's just the way it goes

First time, just a quick run through

Next time, when you're gonna get to
Slow down, do ya hurry up
And move on to another round

That's just the way it goes
That's just the way it goes
