There's a highway
But it ain't gonna get you there
There's a distance
From what you see and what you hear
But somewhere inside of that mind
And that soul of yours

You gotta be crazy
Til the world comes crawlين' back
They gotta see it
Til they believe it
And the man's been wonderin' lately
How to make this freedom last
So give 'em all the love you have
Til the world comes crawlين' back

Well there's a right way
But it ain't gonna make a change
There's a big bad drought
But it don't mean it can't rain
Somewhere up high in the sky and the clouds
There's a chance

You gotta be crazy
Til the world comes crawlين' back
They gotta see it
Til they believe it
And the man's been wonderin' lately
How to make this freedom last
So give 'em all the love you have
Til the world comes crawlين'

It's a sweet song you never know
It's the strangest place
That you thought you'd never go
It was a paradigm shift
When they thought the world was flat
And they said that you'd be lyin'
Til the ship came back
It's a new fuel
It's gravity

And it never made sense
Til it fell out of a tree
It's the one percent
A new president
It's you and me man you
You gotta be
You gotta be

You gotta be crazy
Til the world comes crawlin' back
They gotta see it
Til they believe it
And the man's been wonderin' lately
How to make this freedom last
So give 'em all the love you have
Til the world comes crawlin' back

(And the world came crawlin')
(And the world came crawlin' back)
(And the world came crawlin' back)
(And the world came)
