I tried to let you go
I went out all alone
Took everything I own
Nothing to make me turn around

I watched the sky grow dark
Learned names of all the stars
Woke up by the sound of cars
Saying good bye to one more town

I ran from here until I couldn't anymore
And somehow I keep appearin' at your door

[Chorus]
I can't help findin' my way
No I can't help findin' my way
I can't help findin' my way
Way back to you

I met somebody else
Not doin' like yourself
Felt like I might as well
God knows there's no one else around

When I start thinking 'bout if she could be one
I end up wonderin' what we could have done

[Chorus]
I can't help findin' my way (help findin' my way)
No I can't help findin' my way (help findin' my way)
I can't help findin' my way
Way back to you
Way back to you

Bridge:
I don't know what I would do
If you told me I'm too late now

Some endings throw you off
Sometimes your thoughts go wrong
Maybe I just belong

Right here where I was runnin' from

[Chorus]

I can't help findin' my way (help findin' my way)

No I can't help findin' my way (help findin' my way)

I can't help findin' my way

Way back to you woah no

I can't help findin' my way (help findin' my way)

No I can't help findin' my way (help findin' my way)

I can't help findin' my way

Way back to you

Way back to you woah oh

My way back to you
