Oh your lips should've never touched,
Your bodies should've never met but,
What's done is done, and it's done,
Tell yourself that.

Everything, everything is gonna be alright.

Don't keep trying,
Coz I'll never be your perfect lullaby,
Maybe just in your dreams,

One day you'll get what you deserve,
At least I hope so.
So you'll finally know exactly what you're worth,
Tell yourself that.

Everything, everything is gonna be alright.

Don't keep trying,
Coz I'll never be your perfect lullaby,
Maybe just in your dreams.
You may have been the anchor,
But I was the whole damn ship,
And we both know, I can get back to shore without you.

Such a pity, isn't it?
