BLEED! Till Iâ'm seeing the white in your eyes
BLEED! Till I choke you, you lose air and die
BLEED! Till my anger has pierced through your skin
BLEED! Till your hallow and nothingâ's within

The rush of this carnage
It gives me a high
Youâ'll never destroy us
The Spartans canâ't die
I wanna see you bleed!

BLEED! As the vultures are claiming the sky
BLEED! As the bodies are stacked 10 feet high
BLEED! As our shields are crushing your skull
BLEED! As our spears are commanding your fall

Enemies attack with hesitation
They didnâ't expect this confrontation
Now they face retreat, humiliation
The gods have failed to see this revelation!
