A normal morning, like any other day
I told my baby, to lock the doors and stay
She didn't listen or take my advice
Now she's thinking twice
She's about to die

Zombies ate my neighbors!
They'll tear your flesh from head to toe
Zombies ate my neighbors!
They'll eat your flesh from head to toe
I saw in their eyes
It was a devilish green
I saw it once before
It wasn't in a dream
Oh, all this mystery
It's all inside my head
If I don't get out now
I'll end up dead
