This is the real world in real time
And I am sick of rendering
So toss your seeds on cement
And see if they can grow alone

There is a reason behind weeds
When walls are broken we can break
Through them all
To see what continues to grow

It's hard to see humility
Because humanity is lead by us men
And we all need exorcisms and exercising
{were} born with two sides and need to stay in shape

You're so insecure standing in your own skin
Someday you won't need it

And I can't do this on my own
And I will always be an imperfect human just being me, just being me
And I will always be an imperfect human being me
Stop worrying about where you've been because it brought you back to me

It's hard to see humility
Because humanity is lead by us men
And we all need exorcisms and exercising
{were} born with two sides and need to stay in shape

And we can be delivered even if it's late
Being late is okay if we reach our destination

I am not afraid to die
I am not afraid to die
I am terrified of life
I am terrified

I am not afraid to die
I am not afraid to die
I am terrified of life

I am terrified

You're so insecure standing in your own skin
Someday you won't need it anymore
I will walk alone
