I used to be so unhappy and so lonely
Love would come and never stay
But, that was yesterday

I was scared to admit I cared for someone
'Cause my heart would always break
But, things have changed today

Darling, did you know that something happened to us?
Right before the future and right after the past
Did you smile when you found out what a wonderful thing it was?
We found an everlasting love

I'm glad we'll go through life together
'Cause when you are by my side
Tomorrow looks so bright

I'm sure we'll stay in love forever
As for all our fears and doubt
They're all behind us now

Darling, did you know that something happened to us?
Right before the future and right after the past
Did you smile when you found out what a wonderful
thing it was?
This love is everlasting
Darling, did you know that something happened to us?
Right before the future and right after the past
Did you smile when you found out what a wonderful
thing it was?
We found an everlasting love

Sharing my love with you as We journey through life walking hand in hand
But our lifetime seems short for a love
That will last 'til the end of time

Darling, did you know that something happened to us?
Right before the future and right after the past
Did you smile when you found out what a wonderful
thing it was?

This love is everlasting

Darling, did you know that something happened to us?
Right before the future and right after the past
Did you smile when you found out what a wonderful
thing it was?
Our hearts have found a love
(We found an everlasting love)
We found an everlasting love
