Quite a lot of companies did build their high profit
On exploiting third world countries Without knowing any boundaries Turning nature in a wasteland While counting with the same hand
"Nine for us and one for them"
They won't resist 'cause we did ban Trade unions to stop fights for higher wages, human rights
No equality but lies when do we open our eyes
And you tell me they come here please shut up I'm freezin
For luxury goods, for economical reason

You tell me I'm freezin, they come here for a reason Rightwing propaghanda, please tell me that you're teazin
Stop right now, be quite oh please come down Think first, then shout Use your head before you shout out loud Hey! Stop right now, don't wanna hear no lies, no, please shut your mouth
And outside now, use your head before you judge and shout

Why do you think they risk their lives,
Little children, husbands, wives
Leaving the african coast in more a nutshell than a boat Escaping hunger, civil war, torture, rapture... you need more?
Over countless wet graves inbetween strong wind and waves
So Fortress Europe builds a wall to prevent decay and fall
Higher and higher, cameras, dogs, barbwire
And you tell me they come here, please shut up I'm
freezin
For luxury goods, for economical reason
