Friends have to laugh
Say I've done one direction
Looking for perfection
Something I'll never find

They say, watch out
You're too fussy
You'll wind up without
But I don't know what They're talking about

I'm just looking to find someone
Who's that special someone
To give my heart to

[CHORUS]

And I'll know her when I see her
Know her from a mile
Know her when I see her
When I see her smile
Know her when I see her
I'm living for today
Know her when I see her
When I look into those baby blues
And she tells me
She's been looking too

Get your head from the clouds
Get back down like the rest of us
Don't you know that the best of us
Must make concessions sometimes

Wake up from your dreams
Life's not much more than it seems
But I guess I'm inclined romantically
And I'll hold on to that outdated view
That there's a special someone for me

And you know

[Repeat CHORUS]

Know her when I see her
Know her when I see her
Know her when I see her
Know her when I see her...
