Key Largo wants to test my will tonight.
My friends all sing until it's dawn.
These simple plans they look all set to go.
A calming chaser, heart be still...

We live in a digital world.
We move to the beat of each other.
Fly straight don't blow your cover
If you do then you might wanna...

I spy with my eye in an alleyway.
A broken man sells trinkets cheap.
From seven seas he tells me by the way.
I give him 20 and he says to me...

We live in a digital world.
We move to the beat of each other.
Fly straight don't blow your cover
If you do then you might wanna...

Call me (Call me, Call me)
You can call me anytime.
You can Call me (Call me, Call me)
When the clocks hit midnight.

I wrote this storm, the wind and lightning.
Come closer than my last...
Now he stands tall over my table.
He reaches out his hand and he says to me.
With a smile, he says,

We live in a digital world.
We move to the beat of each other.
Fly straight don't blow your cover
If you do then you might wanna...

Call me (Call me, Call me)
You can call me anytime.
You can Call me (Call me, Call me)
When the clocks hit midnight.
