Lets pray again, would you let me
Now i've got pain, I know that you see
You're space is hollow
But in the sky you're stars glow
They're so many...
They're so pretty...la la

Twinned up to reduce all the chance
Of contradicting a new science
The red cells are lost
They can't get to you
It's killing you
Suffocate through
I needed you...I needed you

But I know, an angel is born of you
Despite of you
And I show, a denial since you
I needed you...she needed you

Today's a new day get over
It's a bright and sunny day it's warmer
But will come yesterday
In the middle of the sunny way
To remind me
You're beside me
You surround me
You're all over me

Chorus

Let me invite you
Fill the space
Don't know if I should
Wanna see your face
Won't you drive my every words
Into you're simple grace
And take me
Where everybody can hear me
Can hear me

Can you hear me....
