Hey Jenny, please. I'm not in love with you
It can't be that hard to understand
I am not your man

Something is wrong. I'm not the same again
It's all very odd
Hope you understand
Don't you hold my hand!

And now I'm empty and clean
All alone now, boy! Yeah
And I am all I have for now
Trapped alone in my wonder-wonderland

Go, Johnny, go. Don't be a blue-eyed boy
The world is your home
Now you understand
It's a wonderland

And now I'm empty and clean
All alone now, boy! Yeah
And I am all I have for now
I'm trapped alone in my wonder-wonderland

So I'm alone now, boy!
All is open to me (whoa)
I am guilty and free
So I'll be gone now

I am empty and clean
All alone now, boy! Yeah
And I am all I have for now
Trapped alone in my wonder-wonderland
