1.verse

When a furious boy met a sinister girl
They raged andd they yelled 'til the demos turned to stone
And the angels came near
It was one touch and all became beautiful

chorus:

Now the feeling's odd and the fever passed
Yeah, this blood is calm and life stays on
They color the world

2.verse

This curious thing changed everything
Opened the doors and led to a waltz
They'd endlessly dance along corridors and halls
Throughout the worlds

chorus:

Now the feelings odd and the fever passed
Yeah, this blood is calm and life stays on
Oh and the love in their vains will kill the pain
And so they stay and color the world

This curious thing changed everything
Opened the doors and led to a waltz
They'd endlessly dance along corridors and halls
Throughout the worlds

chorus:

Yeah, this blood is calm and life stays on
And they color the world
