She's leaving me now
"I'm gonna let you go". Oh yeah
Staring me down
"I'm gonna let you go", she says

She's fading me out
I thought we were meant to be. Oh yeah
Scaring me off
"I'm gonna stop right now", she says

And suddenly something is holding me down
Oh my love, Phoebe has gone away today, now the rain
won't stop
And I'm easily torn. I thought she would never let me go

"Now the season is high I'm gonna step right out". Oh yeah
"Follow your heart
I'm gonna let you go", she says

And suddenly something is tearing me down
Oh my love, Phoebe has gone away today, now the rain
won't stop
And I'm easily torn. I thought she would never let me
go. Oh yeah

She's leaving me now
"I'm gonna let you go", she says
Phoebe has gone away today, now the rain won't stop

And I'm easily torn. I thought she would never let me
go. Oh yeah

Phoebe has gone away today, now the rain won't stop
And I'm easily torn. I thought she would never let me go
