(Oo-hoo, ah ah, ah ah)
Here we go

Ooh yeah, it's getting dark
Oh no, they've got an attitude that kills me (kills me)
But then: Oh my, and there you are
I know you're not an ordinary being
But a solitudinarian, oh, who got it all wrong

You shine like a star: (oo-hoo) if only you ever knew
You'd go out and bloom, (oo-hoo) if only you ever knew You're very uncool (ooh yeah) and forever wonderful. I know

Easy to make you out
I see you're not an ordinary being
But a luminary hearted soul who got it all wrong

You shine like a star: (oo-hoo) if only you ever knew
You'd go out and bloom, (oo-hoo) if only you ever knew You're very uncool (ooh yeah) and forever wonderful. I
know

You're a solitudinarian, a solitudinarian
A luminary hearted soul who got it all wrong
You know, you got it all wrong

You shine like a star: (oo-hoo) if only you ever knew
You'd go out and bloom, (oo-hoo) if only you ever knew You're very uncool (ooh yeah) but forever wonderful. I know

(Oo-hoo, ah ah, oh oh)
Starlet, I'm yours
