Call me, and I come all around her
Own me sooner or later

Tell me who we are
Come tear us apart
Oh no, feelings, they die hard
No one know what she's singing

Ooh la la, my love
We're synchronized

Meet me on the frequency of the voice, voice
Soothe me
Feels like I had known her as a young boy, boy
Forced us, we're even born into our world

Our fear it holds, I know, though hypothesis seems to be foolish and hollow, oh
End will never come, only faces
They will never let you go
We understand

No one can cool our love, I know
We're synchronized

Meet me on the frequency of the voice, voice
Soothe me
Feels like I had known her as a young boy, boy
Forced us, we're even born
into our world

We flow like milk into a cereals but 21st century understands
Girls and boys are dangerous toys
Nobody can really understand, stand

Oh, meet me on the frequency of the voice, voice
Soothe me
Feels like I had known her as a young boy, boy
Feed me

Ooh, I'm on the frequency of the voice, voice

Soothe me through these sleepless nights
