The wrong time, the wrong place...
Your talent scouts my lonely face...
Of all the things I can't replace...
Your talent scouts my lonely face, yeah.

Well it's alright, although I know you lied.
I don't mind, Oh
It's all right...
Although, I know you lied...
I don't mind, Oh

The wrong time, the wrong place...
Your talent scouts my lonely face...
Of all the things I can't exscape...
Your talent scouts my lonely face, yeah

Well, I'm alright, although I know you lied.
I don't mind, oh
If my life flashed before my eyes,
Do ya think I'd mine?
No...

And now you don't need mine.
You let us down...
You watched us die...
Now, I hang around...
With people I don't even know.

Well, it's alright, although I know you lied.
I don't mind, oh
If my life flashed before my eyes,
Do ya think I'd mine?
