Through the eyes of the ignorant, you seem God-like,
you look fearless.

Through the eyes of the innocent, you seem Ape-like,
you look heartless

So Stand Down, we don't worship you
Stand Down, we will know the truth
Fall Down, and no one will comfort you Stand Down, before everything's through.

The harder you try to control this inherent upheaval,
The faster we resist, by taking your life, so evil
All the while screaming...

Chorus

In the midst, of these hypocrites,
One God, one truth, one path to bliss
No Jorre, nina chica, your God will never abandon you.

Don't be so full of fear, so quick my dear, all alone.
Take a look at yourself, not everyone else, they'll tell you they're better than me,
Make promises they'll never keep. Tell you more...

Levy en Masse.
