Forgive me
For I can't keep quiet anymore

Just so you know these words you say mean everything to me
The very sounds are the strings to my heart
I am overwhelmed and can't be silent
So please forgive me if I can't keep quiet
I'm so fulfilled and so inspired
I've got to tell the world

Forgive me
I just can't keep this joy in me

I've got to let the world know
Why my heart won't stop racing
Believe me
I swear there is no better feeling
I've got to let the world know
That there is nothing else that I'll be needing now

Forgive me for I can't keep quiet
The voice of heart cannot be silenced
Believe me because I know, I've tried it
And he always pulls me back to him

I breathe for you, I sing for you
I will scream with all my heart
This is everything that I believe
And you are everything I need
So I will scream with all my heart
This is everything that I believe

Forgive me for I can't keep quiet
The voice of heart cannot be silenced
Believe me because I know, I've tried it

This is everything that I believe
