The moon is out with intentions of another night,
But we won't sleep, baby, no sleep tonight
With my arm around your back, yeah
Butterflies are working overtime, overtime

Cause you know, oh oh, that I would do
Whatever it takes, to have you, hold you
And you know, oh oh, that I could be
The one to make you wanna say
"I, I think that I am falling for you"

And all I know is you get me through the day,
Every day and you help me sleep at night
Not only that, you've seem to found a way
To make everyday the best day of my life

Cause you know, oh oh, that I would do
Whatever it takes, to have you, hold you
And you know, oh oh, that I would be
The one to make you wanna say
"I, I think that I am falling for you"

This state, that I hate so much, is a little bet better
Now you've given me a reason to stay
And this state, that I hate so much, is a little bet better
Now you've given me a reason to stay
This state, that I hate so much, is a little bet better
Now you've given me a reason to stay
And this state, that I hate so much, is a little bet better
Now you've given me a reason to stay

Cause you know, oh oh, that I would do
Whatever it takes, to have you, hold you
And you know, oh oh, that I would be
The one to make you wanna say
"I, I think that I am falling for you"

This state, that I hate so much, is a little bet better
Now you've given me a reason to stay
And this state, that I hate so much, is a little bet better
Now you've given me a reason to stay
This state, that I hate so much, is a little bet better

Now you've given me a reason to stay
And this state, that I hate so much, is a little bet better
Now you've given me a reason to stay

Cause you know, oh oh, that I would do
Whatever it takes, to have you, hold you
And you know, oh oh, that I would be
The one to make you wanna say
"I, I think that I am falling for you"

Cause you know, oh oh, that I would do
Whatever it takes, to have you, hold you
And you know, oh oh, that I would be
The one to make you wanna say
