

The Crucified "God In A Cage"

Visit "God In A Cage" on MotoLyrics.com

You've heard the whole story
You don't want to be a part
You've taken Jesus Christ
And locked him out of your heart
If you're not for him you're against him
The bringer of new life
There is one thing you must do
Accept the way, the truth, the life

Is God in a cage?
From hell you won't be saved (x2)

Concerned with pleasing crowds
You put God to the test
Don't wait 'till you're before his throne
The wages of sin are death
I'm no longer of this world
That I know for sure
Greater is he who's in me
Than he who's in the world

(chorus)

Jesus set me free
Now it's time for you
If you think this is a fairytale
I tell you it's the truth

(chorus)
