the trials you now are facing they are not greater than your will for there is nothing under heaven you cannot overcome see the door that lies before you and know- this too shall pass the confrontation of your fears in strength drawn from the past where the silent voices whisper find the course- that is your own
and however great the obstacle
you will never be alone
for I have watched the path of angels and I have heard the heavens roar
There is strife within the tempest but calm in the eye of the storm.

in fragments of an instant the chaos has returned and all that was left to sentiment (emptiness) beneath the banner burned and as that voice was slow receded into echoes, memory my doubts were re-ignited and fear awakened from its sleep

I believe in what I fight for and I have paid for it with pain i am here because my contributions may help turn this fate away and all who stood by and did nothing who are they to Criticize? the sacrifices of others-our blood has bought their lives...

This is the moment of truth at the point of no return-
place faith in your convictions when boundaries begin to blur

There is no love untouched by hate no unity without discord
there is no courage without fear there is no peace without a war there is no wisdom without regret no admiration without scorn
but calm in the eye of the storm...

The pages of our history are written by the hand with eyes and ears and prejudice too far removed- to understand and so the heroes of the ages past are stripped of honesty- and love to make them seem less noble and hide what we can become

as the boundaries begin to blur

and calm in the eye of the storm...

There is no love untouched by hatred

if you find the courage within you to face the path ahead it matters not the outcome if what you will gain instead is a heart deepened in the knowing that experience carves the soul and the very thing that empties you shall surely make you whole
